

Together for peace

The pan-European issue

This year, PostEurop's pan-European issue focuses on peace and as often before, we have chosen to issue a minisheet on the theme. The DKK 36 stamp is issued in all PostEurop's member states, while the delightful DKK 12 stamp is an adapted reissue of the stamp originally introduced to commemorate the 25th anniversary of the liberation of Denmark.

Children's classics

For decades Danish children's books have kept children and young people of all ages entertained for hours with their stream of relevant, captivating, imaginative, unusual and humorous tales. More than a few parents, grandparents and other people outside the principal target group have also found themselves unable to resist the charms of the fantastic children's stories. So it can come as no surprise that the cover illustrations of a number of these classic works have found their way onto stamps – which, after all, are the proud bearers of Danish cultural history in the broadest sense.

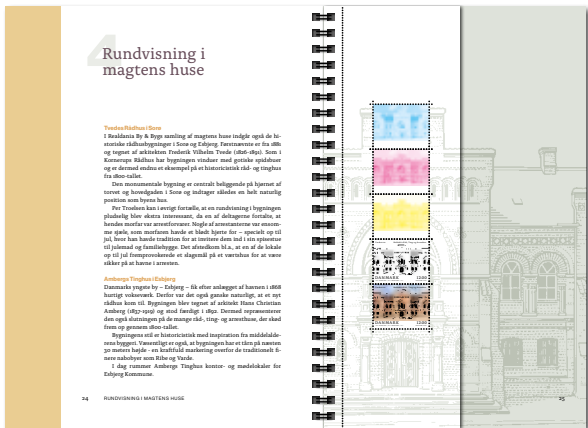

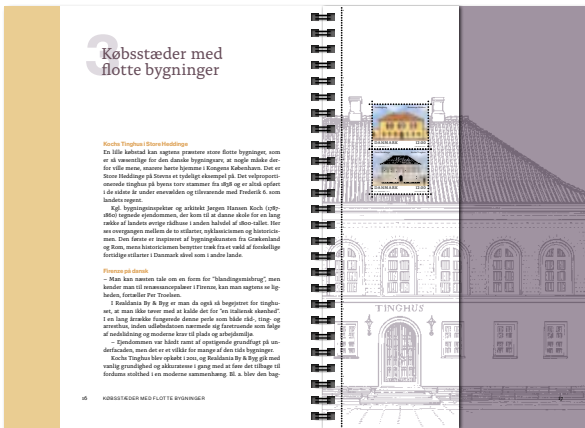

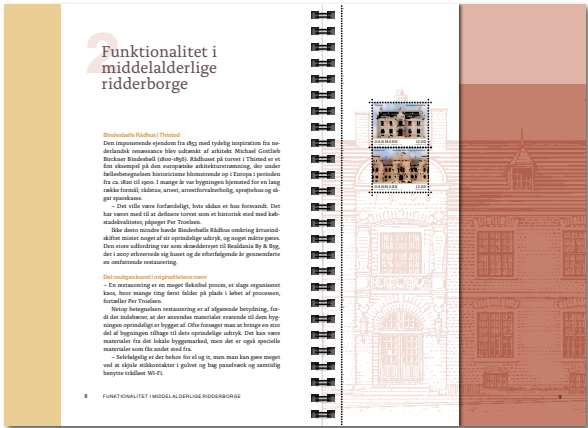

Meet Pussycat with the blue eyes, Otto, the Rhino, Carl, The Incredible Story of the Giant Pear, Sally's Dad, Circleen, The Knomes, Betty, Snøvsen and Bruin on the ten stamps.

Prestige booklet - Architecture

This year's prestige booklet tells the fascinating story of Realdania's beautiful restorations of old Danish town halls, courthouses and county jails. In addition to Kornerup's Town Hall in Vordingborg, Bindsbøll's Town Hall in Thisted, Koch's Courthouse in Store Heddinge and Meldahl's Town Hall/ Courthouse/County Jail in Fredericia, you can read about public buildings in Esbjerg and Sorø. The restored town halls, courthouses and county jails are named after the great architects who designed them: As always, the prestige booklet contains unique prints of the stamps.

Putting candles in the window on the night of May 4

The invasion of Ukraine has turned the spotlight once more on the value of peace and freedom, which is why PostNord has chosen to reissue the beautiful yet simple stamp from 1970 featuring Povl Christensen's linoleum print, which was originally issued to mark the 25th anniversary of Danish liberation from occupation. Our aim in reissuing this stamp is to encourage everyone to put candles in their windows to symbolize a desire for peace and freedom for people everywhere.
