

We honor the Danish tradition of portrait engraving

There is a long and proud tradition of celebrating the nation's great personalities with stamp issues. They have often been done in the classic engraving technique. We celebrate this with two minisheets, both of which are redesigns of earlier stamp issues.

Minisheet PN281329 DKK 100

Danish portrait engraving I

The first minisheet features two prominent portraits of Tove Ditlevsen and Søren Kierkegaard respectively. The portrait of Tove Ditlevsen is based on a photograph by Erik Petersen and is engraved by Martin Mörck, while Søren Kierkegaard is based on a drawing by his cousin N. Chr. Kierkegaard and is engraved by Bertil Skov Jørgensen.

Andersen's is based on a photograph by Thora Hallager from 1869 and engraved by Sjøblom.
